

SEA COUNTRY MANAGEMENT WORKSHOP – 16 April 2018

Time	Topic	Speakers
9:00 – 9:15	Introductions & Welcome
9:15 – 10:30	Sea-country IPAs: benefits and challenges? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What’s happening around Aust? • What’s working well, what’s not? • Are IPAs the best option? 	Djelk rangers Anindilyakwa rangers
MORNING TEA
11:00 – 11:45	Sea-country management <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What’s working well here? • What’s happening overseas? 	Whitney Rassip, Girringun Mel Dulfer-Hyams, PEW
11:45 – 12:30	20 years of IPAs - an important contributor to conservation and the reserve estate Technical requirements & support available	Jackie Gould, Charles Darwin University Marcus Sandford, Dept of Prime Minister & Cabinet
12:30 – 1:00	Managing sea-country in marine reserves <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Indigenous engagement in reserve planning and management 	Zoe Cozens, Parks Australia
LUNCH
2:00 – 2:45	Tasmanian management activities and aspirations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Kings Run • truwana rangers program 	Jarrold Edwards, Tasmanian Aboriginal Centre Fiona Maher, truwana rangers
2:45 – 3:10	Giving voice to the river: Yarra River Protection (Wilip-gin Birrarung murrong) Act 2017	Jordan Smith & Karmen Jobling, Wurundjeri Land Council
3:10 – 3:30	World heritage & coastal management: Budj Bim Cultural Landscape heritage nomination	Denis Rose, Gunditj Mirring Traditional Owners Aboriginal Corporation
3:30 – 4:00	General discussion & close	All